Shahrul rescues Sri Pahang with late goal

August 14, 2022 @ 12:06am

Sri Pahang FC player Andres Steven Rodriguez Ossa (centre) taking on Melaka United FC players at the Hang Jebat Stadium today. - Bernama pic

KUALA LUMPUR: Shahrul Nizam Nadair rescued Sri Pahang with a late goal in the 2-2 draw with Melaka United at the Hang Jebat Stadium today.

Melaka led 2-0 through Ifedayo Omosuyi (38th minute) and Adriano Narcizo (51st).

However, David Rowley reduced the deficit in the 87th minute for Sri Pahang before Shahrul scored the equaliser in the final minute.

At MBPJ Stadium, Negri Sembilan recorded their fourth consecutive win by overcoming PJ City 2-0.

Gustavo dos Santos scored a brace in the 11th and 62nd minutes.

In Gong Badak, Kpah Sherman's 72nd-minute goal earned Terengganu a 1-0 win over Sarawak United.

RESULTS: SUPER LEAGUE

MELAKA UTD 2 SRI PAHANG 2

PJ CITY 0 NEGRI SEMBILAN 2

TERENGGANU 1 SARAWAK UTD 0