KUALA LUMPUR: One of the United Kingdom's most exciting and innovative young drummers, singer/songwriters and producers, Yussef Dayes is slated to perform at RexKL on Nov 25.

A first in a series of cultural events by Collective Minds Asia and RK Live Asia, it is hoped that Dayes' performance will draw music lovers to the venue.

"He is one of the breakout players of the South London jazz scene and together with his band, has taken the world by storm not just with his talent and artistry, but his visual prowess.

"It will be an assault on all senses and one should not miss the opportunity to witness him and his band live in action," said Zaran Vachha of Collective Minds Asia and Rahul Kukreja of RK Live Asia in a statement released recently.

Best known for his work with his brothers in United Vibrations, and also as one half of electrifying duo Yussef Kamaal, Yussef has been developing his sound since age four when his dad bought him his first drum kit.

Born and raised in South East London, as a kid Yussef was practising non-stop, "My parents were strict. If I was going to do this, I had to take it seriously."

His father was a bass player in New York in the 1970s, and brought home an education's worth of jazz vinyl that the Dayes brothers all grew-up on — Yussef and his bassist brother Kareem would play along to their dad's records for hours at a time.

"Drumming is a way of communicating and expressing myself, and with a new album in the pipeline, I am excited to show Kuala Lumpur what I am about", said Yussef, Tickets for the show are now available for purchase via <https://bit.ly/CMYussefKL>.

Early bird tickets are priced at RM220 and general admission at RM280 (terms and conditions apply).
