KUALA LUMPUR: The government is looking to amend existing Universities and University Colleges Act 1971 (Auku).

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim said that Auku was a comprehensive legislation but part of it must be repealed.

He said that he had met the Higher Education Minister Datuk Seri Mohamed Khaled Nordin and discussed the matter.

"I can give assurances that any provisions that pressure the (university) students and lecturers will be abolished," he said at Dialog Anak Muda Temu Anwar during Youth Empowerment Fair 2023 at Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre here today.

He said this during a question and answer session on the government's stance on repealing Auku.
