KUALA LUMPUR: The results of applications to study at a public tertiary education university for Sijil Tinggi Persekolahan Malaysia (STPM) leavers and equivalent for the 2023/2024 session are out today.

In a statement today, Higher Education Ministry said candidates who applied can check their results from noon Sept 7 until 5pm Sept 16.

They can check their results at the following sites;

<https://jpt.utm.my>

<https://jpt.uum.edu.my>

<https://jpt.unimas.my>

<https://jpt.ums.edu.my>

<http://jpt.umt.edu.my>

They can also check via UPUPocket using mobile devices.

The candidates have from Sept 8 to 16 to either confirm or reject the offers at the respective universities.

The offer letter will be issued by the respective universities to successful candidates, starting Sept 8, after the candidates have confirmed the offer within the timeframe.

"The admission selection of these candidates is based on the meritocracy principle, taking into account 90% academic achievement and 10% co-curricular achievement.

"Based on the meritocracy principle, all eligible candidates with the highest merit scores regardless of race, religion, state, standard of living and place of residence are given the opportunity to study at public universities.

"The total number of UPUOnline applications received for STPM programmes or equivalent is 118,143 candidates, with 70,156 candidates successfully in obtaining an offer," the ministry said.

Applicants who did not receive any offers could submit an appeal via UPUOnline at <https://upu.mohe.gov.my> within 10 days from Sept 7 noon until 5pm on Sept 16

Further information regarding UPUOnline, the candidates can contact the IPTA (public institutions of higher learning) Student Admission Division at 03-88700 6605; or email at upu@mohe.gov.my.
